Correspondence:

- Letter dated June 7, 2021 from Axley Attorneys was sent to Chair and Clerk via email re: Open Records Request. Board members received copies of the request. Chair has communicated with Mitchell R. Olson on a submission timeline of 15 business days. Other townships have charged $0.25 per copy for similar requests. Town does not have access to prior Chairman's electronic communication that may have been sent prior to December 8, 2020 when he was the main point of contact. Supervisors should submit any requested communication they may have to Clerk no later than two (2) weeks from today-June 22, 2021.

Public Comments:

- No parking sign(s) request for Mann Road.

New Business:

- Chairman Frankiewicz shared Jay Nordstrom, Spooner Lake District President's response email re: Season Boat Launch Passes stating Spooner Lake District will not be taking over Seasonal Boat Launch Passes. Continuation/discontinuation of boat passes will be on Town's October meeting agenda. Chair has requested a notice be put in Spooner Advocate that non-resident/property owner Boat Launch Passes now available. A sign is also being made and will be put at the Spooner Lake boat landing with boat pass information.
- Chairman Frankiewicz provided additional information on town clean-up day. Town will need to pay invoice, then submit to Washburn County for reimbursement. AM VETS Post 190 will run clean-up day on September 18, 2021 at Spooner Town Hall. Time to be determined.
- Motion to approve AAA Sports Shop, Inc. Liquor License as advertised by Clerk by Miles Macone; seconded by Jon Johnson. Motion carried unanimously.
